The Wine List

In a change to tradition we have completely altered the format of our wine list and now list all wines by grape variety and style as opposed to country. With Global changes in weather and wine making there is less variation in country and more variation by decree of the winemaker, terroir or vine age, we hope it will also showcase the vast styles that there are with each grape variety and highlight new winemakers and regions to you.

Of course if you want an Aussie Chardonnay or Red Bordeaux we will only be too happy to direct you to the correct area in the list and we will continue to match every dish on the menu with at least 2 wines to save you worrying about any strenuous activity whilst dining at The Harrow.

All our wines are served in Grape Varietal Specific Riedel Glasses, which enhances the wine and your experience. We are able to provide a whole range of wines by the glass by using preservation systems such as Le Verre de Vin and Coravin.

The Harrow Wine Story

We started building this list in 1998. Many things have changed in the last two decades but we continue to be enthralled and excited with new wines from all over the World, whether it be a Czech Republic Pinot Noir, Old Vine South African Chenin or of course English Sparkling wines.

Along the road we have picked up a few “Gongs” including Decanter Wine Restaurant of The Year, The AA Wine List of The Year, The Wine Spectator Best of Award of Excellence and more recently “The World of Wine” top Award for best Wine List in the World.

Roger is now very much involved not only in Wine Journalism with numerous Trade Magazines but sits on many Wine Judging Panels including; The Decanter World Wine Awards, Germany Top 50, The Moet Sommelier of The Year and Decanter Magazine’s Panel Tastings. He is “Editor at Large” for The-Buyer.net, specifically aimed at the on-trade. He has recently been made the Ambassador for ‘The Champagne and Sparkling Wine World Championships’, and continues to be the Wine Consultant to The Caterer Magazine. He also works with Wines of Australia, New Zealand Wine Growers and Wines of South Africa.

The Tri Nations Wine Challenges

The Tri Nations Wine Challenges were set up by Roger & Sue 4 years ago in Cape Town, and is hosted in New Zealand, Australia, Little Bedwyn and Cape Town highlighting the wines of these countries matched to food. Last year California joined as a Guest Wine nation, with the first Challenge held at The Vineyard Hotel in Berkshire on October 10th 2017. This year we look forward to welcoming Chile on board.

In 2014 the Jones Family went into wine production and have 2 wines already produced with further wines on the way. The first 2 wines; a Chenin and a Pinot Noir, were both made in South Africa.

The Mamba Riedel Decanter Awards was set up by Roger and Sue over a decade ago to highlight premium wines from Australia. This event hosted every July in a marquee in our grounds, is attended by the UK’s finest decision makers in the Wine Industry led by Steven Spurrier.

Estate-grown in The Elms Vineyard, on a 'steeper slope' which yields 'riper fruit' without noble rot, this wine is made in a style 'similar to a late-harvest, Mosel Spätlese'. Very rich, with intense, citrusy, peachy flavours and a racy, very long finish, lovely poise and vivacity. Already hard to resist, these wines are for long term cellaring

La Comtesse de Pazo Barrantes, Rias Baixas 2013 £76.00

One of the flagship wines of the Rias Baixas region. The Albarinho grapes develop with real complexity. Intense floral, fruity and balsamic aromas with depth, elegance and freshness on the palate. Silky smooth and structured with exuberance.

Erre Punto Ramirez de Ganuza, Rioja 2011 £52.00

Full bodied richly textured wine.

Murrieta Blanco Reserva Capellania, Rioja 2010 £44.00

Murrieta Blanco Reserva Capellania, Rioja 2004 £58.00

Delicious white Rhone style, fresh and clean. As Murrieta describe it, 'a white wine with the soul of a red wine'.

Vina Gravonia, Crianza Blanco 1993 £68.00

Golden straw-like colour. Liquorice nose, mellow dry sherry, honey and vanilla flavours, resulting in a fresh clean taste. This exceptional Crianza is made solely from Viura grapes.

Vina Tondonia Reserva Blanco 1991 £98.00

Well-developed aromas and excellent dry palate, splendid amber colour resulting from ageing.

Vina Tondonia Gran Reserva Blanco 1976 £175.00

Vina Tondonia Gran Reserva Blanco 1970 £250.00

nose, with hints of banana and pineapple.

Vina Tondonia Gran Reserva Blanco 1964 £900.00

Deep golden colour. Big nose, thick luscious wine, hints of Royal Jelly, long lingering fruit filled aftertaste with overtones of butterscotch. The greatest ever vintage from Rioja. This wine will change in the glass, so drink in small measures to get the full experience.

ROSÉ

Gabrielskloof Rosebud, Bot River South Africa 2017 £30.00

A slightly darker shade of Rose than is currently fashionable. Despite being 58% Syrah and 42% Viognier, this wine gives beautiful aromatics and elegant flavours of white melon, papaya and rose.

Break a Leg Blanc de Noir Rose, South Africa 2016 £38.00

Still Rosé from Cinsault grapes. Delicate perfumed green herby nose, savoury, and cranberry, finely textured, lightly tart. I had a hint of Fino at one stage which added structure and saltiness, but then the sweet cranberry nectar evolved making it a wine you could simply not spit out. Lukas likes the saying “keep it straight and simple”, yes this may be straight and simple to him, but my word what a fantastic Rosé this is, reminiscent of the very best from Provence. Given their heady prices this is a bargain and will also age beautiful – a marvel!

Alpha Xinomavro Rosé, Macedonia Greece 2016 £44.00

A rich fruity Rosé with an aromatic bouquet of rose petals, strawberries, cranberries, citrus zest and hints of rhubarb. Beautifully balanced with a crisp, yet opulent palate enveloped in red fruits and a long, sustained finish.

Les Clans Rose, Chateau d'Esclans, France 2015 £78.00

Grenache and Rolle. Free-run juice. Burgundian in style in both texture and flavour, rich red fruit but masculine, deep but pure, intense but controlled, superlative wine.

Vina Tondonia Rosado, Gran Reserva, Spain 1993 £150.00

Half 1991 £75.00

Full, dark-coloured Rosé with developed oak and rich dry sherry flavours. Develops to many stages as it opens up in the glass. The only aged Rosé in the world. Superb as an aperitif or with seafood and spicy dishes.

FELTON ROAD PINOT NOIR

‘With Felton Road offered in over 500 top restaurants around the world (over 40 countries at last count), it can be hard to keep up with them all, but there are a small group that we count as "friends of the winery". These tend to be people who come to visit us, like to drink the sort of bottles that excite us, stay in touch with the things we are doing and, of course, people who cook the sort of food that we love to eat. The Harrow at Little Bedwyn is most definitely in that gang. Has been for a long time and will be for many years to come. Just a shame Roger and Sue won't open up a branch in Bannockburn!’

Nigel Greening, Felton Road Wines

Behind the Label

Felton Road Bannockburn Pinot Noir

The Bannockburn winery’s ‘standard’ Pinot Noir is a distinguished wine in its own right, blended from its three vineyards at Bannockburn – The Elms, Cornish Point and Calvert. Matured for 11 months in French oak casks (30 per cent new), it is bottled without fining or filtering. Instantly attractive.

Felton Road Cornish Point Pinot Noir

From the company-owned Cornish Point Vineyard at the eastern end of Bannockburn, 6 kilometres from the winery, this is always one of my favourite Felton Road reds. Matured in French oak barriques (about 30 per cent new), a sturdy and deeply coloured, powerful and highly concentrated, with deep plum, spice and nut flavours, lively and long. It should flourish with cellaring.

Felton Road Calvert Pinot Noir

Grown in the Calvert Vineyard at Bannockburn – which neighbours and is managed by Felton Road – and matured in French oak barriques (about 30 per cent new), is a very savoury and complex wine, deep and youthful in colour. Full-bodied, it is ripe and silky-textured, with rich, vibrant cherry, plum, spice, dried-herb and nut flavours and a long finish. It's delicious in its youth but evolves too.

Felton Road Block 3 Pinot Noir

Grown at Bannockburn, on a north-facing slope 270 metres above sea level, this is a majestic Central Otago wine, among the finest Pinot Noirs in the country. The mature vines are cultivated just in front of the winery, in a section of the vineyard where the clay content is relatively high, giving ‘dried herbs and ripe fruit characters’. The wine is matured for about a year in Burgundy oak barrels (about 30 per cent new), and bottled without fining or filtration.

Felton Road Block 5 Pinot Noir

This is winemaker Blair Walter’s favourite Felton Road red. Grown in a ‘special’ block of The Elms Vineyard at Bannockburn in Central Otago, it matures for a year in French oak barriques (30 per cent new), and is then held for several more months in seasoned oak casks. In a vertical tasting of the 2007– 2011 vintages, held in September 2012, the 2010 vintage was the standout – exceptionally concentrated, yet deliciously poised and silky-textured. The 2011 is a 'masculine' style, powerful and firm, sweet-fruited and savoury, with deep cherry, plum and spice flavours, tight and youthful. It should flourish for a decade.

John Duval's Eligo, Barossa, Australia 2008 £125.00

John was the Head Winemaker at Grange but don't let that put you off, these prices are far more reasonable.

These will become Icon wines, age will improve them, but so will the cost. His latest and very rare Eligo, could be the new Grange! Certainly tastes like it and comes from the same vineyards that produced Penfolds Grange in the 1990s.

AGED & RARE SHIRAZ & SYRAH (1 of 2)

Ron and Emily Laughton tend this prized winery in Heathcote in Victoria, South Australia. Ron bases his wines on the great Northern Rhone style and has Syrah clones from Chapoutier in his vineyards. This is a stunning aged example of his brilliant wine making skills.

Brokenwood 'Graveyard Shiraz', Hunter Valley, Australia 2002 £168.00

Brokenwood 'Graveyard Shiraz', Hunter Valley, Australia 2013 £98.00

Legendary wine made by Iain Riggs, smooth seductive, the 02 is singing whilst the 13 needs to age or decant.

Yalumba The Octavius Old Vine Barossa Shiraz, Australia 2013 £125.00

Yalumba The Octavius Old Vine Barossa Shiraz, Australia 2004 £125.00

This is big-ticket stuff, the kind of wine that is not just for an occasion, it is the occasion. Yalumba reminds us once again why they are so famed for crafting wine from the Barossa region that is so expressive. This is full of intrigue and excitement, lots of black fruit, mocha and liquorice with a powerful palate. Multi-layered and long, it seamlessly glides across the palate with well-measured tannins and acids. The 04 is a treat whilst the 13 is vibrant and youthful.

Two Hands Zippy's Block Shiraz, Roennfeldt Road, Australia 2004 £150.00

The 'two hands' are Michael Twelftree and Richard Mintz who formed the company in 1999 with the clear objective of making the best possible Shiraz based wines from prized Shiraz producing regions within Australia. The rest is history as we say with these wines now being some of the most sought after in Australia.

The Relic, Dan Standish, Barossa, Australia 2007 £125.00

4% Viognier, the rest Shiraz. "Offers up a sexy bouquet of floral notes, bacon, smoked meat, incense, and blueberry. Dense, sweet and layered on the palate, it will offer much pleasure over the next 8-10 years. It does not get much better than this from the 2007 vintage. The Standish Wine Company is quickly becoming one of the Barossa Valley's benchmarks." Robert Parker
